HOUSING HELP

If you're on a low income, you might be eligible for legal aid – which means we may be able to help you with your housing problem at no or limited cost to you. If you're not eligible for legal aid, we can provide free initial advice on some housing issues, so you know what steps to take next. You'll be advised by lawyers who volunteer their time to help people in our local community.

WE CAN HELP WITH:

- Succession
- Landlord harassment
- Eviction notice from a court bailiff
- Injunctions from your landlord
- Court hearing for possession
- Rent arrears
- Unlawful eviction
- Anti-social behaviour
- Homelessness
- Rent deposit return

Free on-the-day legal advice and representation at KINGSTON, CROYDON and WANDSWORTH County Courts is also available, if you ask for a court duty advisor.
